Description

Escape to this chic and modern two-story villa, perfect for travelers seeking privacy and style. The exterior features a distinctive Balinese stone facade and a striking wooden arched entrance. Inside, the villa's unique design centers around a beautiful private plunge pool, visible and accessible from the living room and other areas through dramatic floor-to-ceiling black-framed windows. The sunken living area is bright and comfortable, while the bedrooms offer a serene retreat with crisp white linens, light wood accents, and modern lighting. This contemporary villa seamlessly blends stylish interior living, making it an ideal choice for a sophisticated and secluded Bali stay.

Being offered as Freehold, this represents a rare chance for outright ownership and high rental return potential in one of Bali's most vibrant neighborhoods. This is your chance to own a premium asset in Canggu! Contact us today for private viewing details and secure this exceptional investment.
