Set on 300 sqm of land in a single storey layout, the villa wraps around a generous private pool and warm teak deck creating an outdoor space that feels open, airy, and incredibly inviting. With sweeping Balinese tiled rooflines and full-length glass walls throughout, the villa brings the outside in and makes every corner of the home feel bright and connected to nature.

What really makes Villa Namu stand out is its show-stopping kitchen and dining area finished in deep black tones, dark marble surfaces, and warm terracotta seating, it's the kind of space that feels both luxurious and genuinely fun to spend time in. The living areas are spacious and fully air-conditioned, with three comfortable bedrooms and three bathrooms that give everyone their own space and privacy.
